FILED
2014 NOV 14 P 3:20
U.S. BANKRUPTCY COURT
E.D. MICHIGAN - DETROIT

1) We object and totally disagree with Jones Day, Milan, Buckfirer and the emergency Manager Kevyn Orr, sealing money in broad day light from the pensioners by fabricating figures under false pretense, to deceive and trick pensioners to pay money that they never owed under the craw-back.

2) We object to Article 1. A. 22 of any recoupment without a statutes or law of authority in place to legally charge 6.75% interest rate on the craw-back.

The state nor the city has invested any financial funds in the annuity to even have standing to object to how much the pensioners make or the interest rate, as long as it was within the law. The annuity is an insurance contract that cannot be change and, therefore the contract has been breached and violations of Article 1 section 10 ex post facto law of the State Constitution and Article 1 Section 9 of the Federal Constitution.

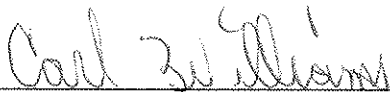

The city and the emergency manager, Kevyn Orr wanted to go back to 2003 on the craw-back that is a violation of the two years statute of limitation and they are only allowed to go back two years under the statute of limitation if this craw-back was legally binding.

The city or the emergency manager have not cited any statute violations in regard to the craw-back and the court is allowing this charade to continue without any legal basis of authority.

2) We object to Article numbers or sections 23 thru 35 of the Annuity Saving Funds (ASF) makes it to confusing ASF could mean anything according to the way you apply it and a person could easily misinterpret what you mean with all the different meaning.
